

Why Give: What Donations Mean to the Students of SEA

Becoming a donor means becoming a member of the SEA community.

And that's something to be proud of. Every year, nearly 90% of our seniors graduate, laying the foundation for lifelong achievement and success. We could not provide our rigorous academic curriculum and various services for students and their families without the support of local philanthropists, foundations and corporations.

Where Funding Goes

